

Discipleship and Training Grid

As you grow in the Lord, you will learn about many things directly from the Bible. You may also feel led to read books, attend conferences and seminars, etc. in order to accelerate your spiritual growth.

To help you seek out the mentoring and training you need in a purposeful way, here are 61 important areas of discipleship training that every Christian should aggressively pursue, one at a time.

The first and most important thing to do is to study God’s Word, the Bible, until you have a rock-solid knowledge of it—and then study it some more, and never stop studying it. However, while you’re doing that, you can also pursue understanding, training, and practical experience in areas 2-61:

Systematic theology	Hearing God	Prophetic checks and balances	Journaling	Understanding dreams and visions
Prophetic protocol	Solid prayer life with fasting	Intercessory prayer	Leading a team	Principles of effective mentoring
Principles of physical healing	“Cast your cares” method of inner healing	Sozo method of inner healing	Praying the Word	How to bless and pronounce blessings
How to curse and pronounce curses (over bad things)	How to hear, use, and release words of knowledge	How to do impartation; principles of impartation	Healing from father wounds and impact thereof	Healing from mother wounds and impact thereof
Selah ministry	Preaching	How to teach	Culture of honor	Spiritual warfare
Spiritual alignment & covering	Healing from friend wounds and impact thereof	Strong discernment of spirits	How to equip others and help them activate their gifts	Difference between true prophets versus false prophets
Sermon prep	Organizing events	Leading prayer meetings	Shepherding people	Matthew 18 conflict resolution
Discerning times & seasons (Issachar anointing)	How to hear, use, and release words of prophecy	Discerning a Jezebel spirit versus true prophets	Pioneer spirit and the Perez anointing	How to write God’s message well
Binding and loosing	Principles of prayer counseling	Casting out demons	Theology of Israel	Prophetic worship
Tabernacle of David	Signs, wonders, miracles	Use of tallit	The feasts of the Lord	Theology of the local church
Giving and prophetic giving	Kingdom finance	Kingdom authority	Theology of sound	Raising the dead
Vision-casting	Vision boards	Thankfulness	Rest	Accountability
